Preamble.

person all sums of money or other estate in the hands of such executor or administrator that had remained, or should remain for seven years after such executor's or administrator's qualification unrecovered by the creditors, legatees or next of kin of the testator or intestate; and furthermore, that said trustees should hold the said money and other estate without liability for profits or interest until a just claim therefor should be preferred; and also, that if no such claim therefor should be preferred within ten years thereafter, the said trustees should hold the same absolutely for the benefit of the University:

And whereas the said enactments were wholesome, not only in providing a convenient method for executors and administrators to settle their accounts and close their trusts in reasonable time, but also in promoting useful learning by affording some assistance to the University, and at the same time in better securing the fund for the satisfaction of creditors of the deceased person and for the benefit of his or her legatees or family, if claims in due time and before a fair presumption of satisfaction or abandonment might arise:

And whereas in the forty-sixth (46) chapter of the Revised Statutes, entitled "An Act concerning executors and administrators," it is, in the twentieth section, enacted merely that all sums of money or other estate of whatever kind which then remained or should thereafter remain in the hands or possession of any executor or administrator for seven years after his qualification as such executor or administrator, unrecovered or unclaimed by suits by the creditors, legatees, next of kin or widow of his testator or intestate, shall by the said executor or administrator be paid over to the trustess of the University of North Carolina, omitting to provide expressly therein upon what terms, or for what purposes, or for whose benefit the said money or other estate should be paid or delivered to the said trustees and held by them; and whereas, by reason thereof, divers doubts and questions may arise as to the intent of passing the said act last mentioned, namely, whether, on the one hand, the creditors, legatees or family of the deceased can or cannot claim satisfaction out of the fund in hands of said trustee, and if so, whether there be any limitation of time, and what it is, within which such claim should be preferred; or, on the other hand, whether the said trustees be or be not liable to such claimants, as well for profits or interest on the said estate while held by them, as for the capital thereof:

And whereas it was not the purpose of the General Assembly to annul or change the said wholesome provisions contained in the said act, passed in the year 1809, but the omission expressly to re-enact the same in the said Revised Statutes arose from accident and oversight: Wherefore, and to the end of settling the said questions and clearing the said doubts and all others in the premises,

Be it declared and enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the authority of the same, That the trustees of the University of North Carolina shall and may hold any money or other estate hertofore received, or that may hereafter be received from any executor or administrator as aforesaid by virtue of the said Revised Statutes, without liability for profit or interest until a just claim therefor hath been, or shall be preferred by the creditors, legatees, next of kin or widow of the testator or intestate; and then if no such claim hath been or shall be preferred within ten years after such money or other estate hath been or may be received by the said trustees, then the same may and shall be held absolutely for the benefit of the University.

Sec. 19. Be it further enacted, That when any lands or rights of way may be required by said company, for the purposes of constructing their road, and for the want of agreement as to the value thereof, or from any other cause, the same cannot be purchased from the owner or owners, the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by five commissioners, or a majority of them, to be appointed by any court of record having common law jurisdiction in the county or district where some part of the land or right of way is situated: In making the said valuation, the said commissioners shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may occur to the owner or owners, in consequence of the land being taken, or the right of way surrendered, and also the benefit and advantage he, she or they may receive from the erection or establishment of the railroad or work, and shall state particularly the nature and amount of each;

and the excess of loss or damage over and above the advantage and benefit, shall form the measure of valuation of the said land or right of way: Provided, nevertheless, in case either party shall appeal from the valuation to the next session of the court granting the commission, and give fifteen days notice to the opposite party of such appeal, the court shall order a new valuation to be made by a jury, who shall be charged therewith in the same term or so soon as possible, and their verdict shall be final and conclusive between the parties, unless a new trial shall be granted. The proceedings of said commissioners, accompanied with a full description of the said land or right of way, shall be returned, under the hands and seals of a majority of the commissioners, to the court from which the commission issued, there to remain a matter of record. And the lands or right of way so valued by the commissioners, shall vest in the said company, discharged from all previous liens, so long as the same shall be used for the purposes of said railroad, so soon as the valuation may be paid, or, when refused, may be tendered: Provided, that on the application for the appointment of commissioners under this section, it shall be made to appear, to the satisfaction of the court, that at least ten days' previous notice has been given by the applicants to the owner or owners of the land so proposed to be condemned, or if the owner or owners be infants or non compos mentis, then to the guardian or committee of such owners, if such guardian or committee can be found within the county or district, or if he cannot be found, then such appointment shall not be made unless notice of the application shall have been published at least one month next preceding in some newspaper printed as convenient as may be to the court house of the county or district: Provided, that when there shall be an appeal as aforesaid from the valuation of the commissioners by either of the parties, the same shall not prevent the works intended to be constructed from proceeding. But when the appeal is made by the company requiring the surrender, they shall be at liberty to proceed in their work only on condition of giving to the opposite party a bond, with good security, to be approved by the clerk of the court where the valuation is returned, in a penalty equal to double the said valuation, conditioned for the payment of the said valuation and interest, in case the same be sustained, and in case it be reversed, for the payment of the valuation thereafter to be made by the jury and confirmed by the court.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That the said President and directors, their officers and servants, shall have full power and authority to enter upon all lands and tenements through which they may desire to conduct their work, and to lay out the same according to their pleasure, so that the mill house, yard or other buildings of no person be invaded without his consent; and they shall have power to enter on and lay out such contiguous land, as they may desire to occupy, as sites for depots, toll houses, ware houses, work shops and other buildings for the necessary accommodation of their officers, agents and servants, their horses, mules and other cattle, and for the protection of the property entrusted to their care: Provided, that the land so laid out shall not exceed one and a half acres in any one parcel.

If the President and directors cannot agree with the owner or owners of the land so entered on and laid out by them, as to the terms of purchase, it shall be lawful for them to apply to the court of pleas and quarter sessions of the county in which such land or the greater part thereof may lie; and upon such application the court shall appoint five disinterested and impartial freeholders to assess the damages to the owners from the condemnation of the land for the purpose aforesaid. No such appointment, however, shall be made unless ten days previous notice of the application shall have been given to the owner of the land, or to the guardian, if the owner be an infant, or the committee, the owner being non compos mentis; if such owner, guardian or committee can be found within the county, or if he cannot be so found, then such appointment shall not be made unless notice of the application shall have been published at least one month next preceding, in some newspaper printed as convenient as may be to the court house of the county and shall have been posted at the door of the court house, on the first day at least of the next preceding term of the said court.

A day for the meeting of said freeholders, to perform the duty assigned them, shall be designated in the order appointing them; and any one or more of them attending on the day, may adjourn from time to time, until their business shall be finished: Of the five freeholders so appointed any three or more of them may act, after having been duly sworn or solemnly affirmed before some justice of the peace, that they will impartially and justly to the best of their ability ascertain the damages which will be sustained by the proprietor of the land from the condemnation thereof for the use of the company, and that they will truly certify their proceedings thereupon to the court of the said county.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the said freeholders, in pursuance of the order appointing them, to assemble on the land proposed to be condemned; and after running the same and hearing such proper evidence as the party may offer, Freeholders to assess.

they shall ascertain, according to their best judgment, the damages which the proprietor of the land will sustain by the condemnation thereof for the use of the company. In performing this duty, they shall consider the proprietor of the land as being the owner of the whole fee simple interest therein; they shall take into consideration the quality and quantity of the land to be condemned, the additional fencing that will be required thereby, and all other inconveniences which will result to the proprietor from the condemnation thereof.

Report.

Sec. 12. When the said freeholders shall have agreed upon the amount of damages, they shall forthwith make a written report of their proceedings, under their hands and seals, in substance as follows: We ———, freeholders appointed by an order of the court of pleas and quarter sessions for the purpose of ascertaining the damages that will be sustained by ———, the proprietor of certain lands in the said county, which the President and directors of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company propose to condemn for their use, do hereby certify that we met together, on the land aforesaid, on the ——— day of ———, the day therefor by the said order, (or the day to which we were regularly adjourned from the day appointed for our meeting by the said order;) and that having been first duly sworn, and having visited the premises, we proceeded to estimate the quantity and quality of land aforesaid, the quantity of additional fencing which would probably be occasioned by the condemnation, and all other inconveniences which seemed to us likely to result therefrom to the proprietor of the land. That under the influence of these considerations, we have estimated and do hereby assess the damages aforesaid at the sum of ———. Given under our hands and seals, this ——— day of ———.

At the foot of the report so made, the magistrate, before whom the said freeholders were sworn, shall make a certificate in substance as follows:

— County,
 I, —, a justice of the peace of said county, do hereby certify that the above named freeholders, before they executed their duties as above certified, were solemnly sworn (or affirmed) before me; that they would impartially and justly, to the best of their ability, ascertain the damages which would be sustained by the above named —, by the condemnation of the above mentioned land for the use of the "Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company," and they would certify truly their proceedings thereupon to the Court of said county.

Given under my hand this — day of —.

Sec. 13. The report of the freeholders so made, together with the certificate of the justice of the peace as aforesaid, shall be forthwith returned by the said freeholders to the court of the county; and unless good cause can be shown against the report, it shall be confirmed by the court and entered on record. But if the said report should be disaffirmed, or if the said freeholders, being unable to agree, should report their disagreement, or, from any other cause, they should fail to make a report within a reasonable time after their appointment, the court may, in its discretion, as often as may be necessary, supersede them, or any of them, appoint others in their stead, and direct another view and report to be made in the same manner as above prescribed.

Sec. 14. On the confirmation of any such report, and on payment or tender to the proprietors of the land, of the damages so assessed, or the payment of said damages into court, when, for good cause shewn, the court shall have so ordered it, the land reviewed and assessed as aforesaid, shall be vested in "The Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company," and they shall be adjudged to hold the same in fee simple, in the same manner as if the proprietor had sold and conveyed it to them.

Sec. 15. While these proceedings are depending for the purpose of ascertaining the damages to the proprietor for the condemnation of his land, and even before they shall have been instituted, the President and Directors, if the interest of the company requires it, it may, by themselves, their officers, agents and servants, enter upon the lands laid out by them as aforesaid and which they desire to condemn, and apply the same to the use of the company.

If, when they so take possession, proceedings to ascertain the damages as aforesaid, be pending, it shall be their duty diligently to prosecute them to a conclusion; and when the report of freeholders ascertaining the damages shall be returned and confirmed, the court shall render judgment in favor of the proprietor of the land for the amount thereof, and either compel its payment into court or award a process of execution therefor, as to them shall seem right.

Sec. 16. In the mean time no order shall be made, and no injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge, to stay the proceedings of the company in the prosecution of their work, unless it be manifest that their officers, agents and servants, are transcending the authority given them by this act; and that the interposition of their court is necessary to prevent injury that cannot be adequately compensated for in damages.

Sec. 17. If the President and directors shall take possession of any land before the same shall have been purchased by them, or condemned and paid for, according to the provisions of this act, and shall fail for forty days to institute proceedings for its condemnation as aforesaid, or shall not prosecute with due diligence the proceedings commenced for that purpose, it shall be lawful for the proprietor of the land, upon giving to the said President and directors, or any one of them, ten days previous notice, to apply to the court of the county in which the land or the greater part thereof shall lie; and, upon such application, the court shall appoint five disinterested and impartial freeholders to assess the damages to the owner from the condemnation of his lands for the use of the company, shall appoint a day for their meeting to report the duties assigned them, and shall dismiss at the cost of the company, any proceeding then depending in their behalf for the condemnation of said land.

The freeholders so appointed, any three or more of whom may act, shall proceed in the performance of their duties in all respects in the same manner as if they had been appointed on the application of the President and directors of the company. And the court shall in like manner confirm or disaffirm their report, supersede them, or any of them, and appoint others in their stead, or direct another view and report to be made as often as may be necessary. And when any such report, ascertaining the damages, shall be confirmed, the court shall render judgment in favor of the proprietor for the damages so assessed, and double costs; and shall thereupon either compel the company to pay into court the damages and costs so adjudged, or award a process of execution therefor, as to them shall seem right.

Sec. 18. When the judgment rendered for the damages assessed and costs, shall be satisfied by the payment of the money into court or otherwise, the title of the land for which such damages are assessed, shall be vested in the company in the same manner as if the proprietor had sold and conveyed it to them.

For all wood, stone, gravel or earth, taken under authority of this act, and for all incidental injuries done to the enclosures, crops, woods or ground, in taking or carrying the same away, the said President and directors shall make to the owner a fair and reasonable compensation, to be ascertained, if the parties cannot agree, by three impartial and disinterested freeholders, who, being appointed for that purpose by any justice of the peace thereto required by the owner, shall be sworn by him, and shall then ascertain the compensation upon their own view of the wood, stone, gravel or earth taken, and of the injury done as aforesaid in taking them: Provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the owner or owners to shew to the justices of the peace to whom the application is made, that ten days previous notice of the time of making the same has been given to the President or one of the principal agents of the company; and no award which may be given under any appointment, without such notice, shall be obligatory or binding on said company: Provided, however, that either party not satisfied with the award which may be given as above, may appeal to the court of pleas and quarter sessions of the county in which the land may be situated, who may, as in the case of assessment of land, confirm or disaffirm the report of the freeholders, supersede them, or any of them, and appoint others in their stead, or direct another view and report to be made as often as may be necessary.

RESOLUTIONS respecting Slavery in the Territories.

1st. Resolved, That the States came into the Union as equals, and that the citizens of each State are entitled to equal rights, privileges and immunities under the constitution of the United States.

Guarantees
of slavery.

2nd. Resolved, That the proceedings of the Convention by which the Federal Constitution was framed, clearly demonstrate that the institution of slavery was maturely considered, and that the Union of the States was finally secured by incorporating into that instrument distinct and ample guarantees of the rights of the slaveholder.

Conduct of politicians
condemned.

3rd. Resolved, That we view with deep concern and alarm the constant aggressions on the rights of the slaveholder by certain reckless politicians of the North, and that the recent proceedings of Congress, on the subject of slavery, are fraught with mischief well calculated to disturb the peace of our country, and should call forth the earnest and prompt disapprobation of every friend of the Union.

Slavery in
or Territories.

4th. Resolved, That the enactment of any law by Congress which shall abolish slavery or the trade[?] in the District of Columbia, or shall directly or indirectly deprive the citizens of any of the States of the right of emigrating with their slave property into any of the Territories of the United States, and of exercising ownership over the same while in said Territories, will be an act not only of gross injustice and wrong, but the exercise of power contrary to the true meaning and spirit of the constitution, and never contemplated by the framers thereof.

Missouri

5th. Resolved, That while we do not intend hereby to be understood as conceding that Congress has the power, under the Constitution, to enact a law prohibiting slavery in any portion of the Territories of the United States; yet, for the sake of preserving the peace and promoting the perpetuity of the Union, we are willing that the basis of the Missouri compromise should be adopted in reference to the recently acquired Territories of New Mexico and California, by extending the line then agreed upon to the Pacific Ocean.

6th. Resolved, That we believe the people of North Carolina of all parties, are devotedly attached to the Union of the States; that they regard it as a main pillar in the edifice of real independence, the support of tranquility at home, of peace abroad, of safety, of prosperity, and of that very liberty they so highly prize; that they cherish a cordial, habitual, immoveable attachment to it; and that they watch for its preservation with jealous anxiety; that they believe it is the duty of their public servants to discountenance whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned, and to repel indignantly every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts.

7th. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be signed by the speakers of the Senate and House of Commons, and forwarded to our Senators and Representatives in Congress with a request that they be laid before their respective Houses.

[Ratified 27th day of January, 1849.]

RESOLUTION relative to Thanksgiving Day.

[Ratified 16th day of January, 1849.]

RESOLUTION in favor of the Public Treasurer.

Resolved, That the Public Treasurer be, and he is hereby authorized to borrow from the Literary Fund, or from the Bank of Cape Fear, such sum or sums of money, from time to time, as may be necessary to meet the proper charges authorized by law against the State, until the next meeting of the General Assembly: Provided, that the amount so borrowed shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars; and provided further, that the sum or sums so borrowed shall be repaid by the Public Treasurer as soon as the condition of the Treasury will enable him to do the same.

[Ratified 27th day of January, 1849.]

Chatham has been destroyed by fire, wherein the standard weights and measures for said county have been destroyed :

the same privileges, as the original subscribers; and shares of stock in said company shall be transferable in the same manner as personal property: Provided however, that all shares of stock shall be liable to pay such sums as are due to the company upon the same if the assignee or his representative shall be unable to pay the same.

Sec. 17. Be it further enacted, That all persons within the limits of said corporation, who are by law liable to work on the public roads, shall be liable to work on said streets, and for a failure to do so, shall be subject to the same penalties which are now provided by law against those who fail when duly summoned to work on the roads; which said penalties are to be recovered of the father or guardian, in the case of minors failing to work on the streets, and of the owners, in case of slaves.

Persons liable to work on the streets are to be summoned and notified in the same manner as persons liable to work on the roads, and the overseers of the streets are to be competent witnesses to prove due notice in the trial of all warrants for penalties; and all penalties for a failure to work on the streets, shall be recovered in the name of the overseer of the streets by whom the summons is made; and the money is to be applied by him to the keeping of said streets in repair.

Sec. 18. Be it further enacted, That no overseer of the streets shall be liable for the insufficiency of the streets committed to his care, until ten days after he has been served with a copy of his appointment by the town constable; and that no person complying with the requirements of this act con-

The said Intendant of Police is further vested with the same jurisdiction and powers over all other offences committed by slaves as is now by law given to a justice or justices of the peace out of court, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as are provided in those cases. And the said Intendant of Police shall keep a faithful minute of all process issued by or returned before him, and of his judgment or sentence and all the proceedings thereon, in a bound book, and deliver the same to his successor. In case of an appeal duly taken from any judgment or sentence of said Intendant, he shall return the original and all other process in said court, together with a copy of his minutes of his judgment or sentence, and of all the proceedings therein to the term of the court to which said appeal shall be taken, next ensuing the taking of said appeal, on the first day of said term. The Intendant of Police, whilst in town, shall further have the same jurisdiction and power for the trial of all civil matters and controversies as is given to single justices of the peace, and he shall proceed under the same rules and regulations as are by law prescribed for them. And the said Intendant of Police shall, in all cases tried before him, be entitled to demand and receive the following fees, that is to say, in breaches of the peace and all breaches of any of the ordinances of said commissioners, for every warrant, twenty five cents; for every subpoena or order to summons a witness, ten cents; for every judgment, fifty cents; for every appeal granted and recognizance taken in pursuance thereof, twenty five cents; for filing copy of his minutes, fifty cents; in civil causes, for every warrant or attachment, ten cents; for every subpoena or order to summon a witness, five cents; for every judgment rendered upon any warrant, twenty five cents; for granting an appeal or stay of execution, ten cents; for every execution, ten cents: which said fees may be recovered and collected as other fees to officers are or may be collected. Sec. 10. That the said board of commissioners shall meet at the town hall (or some other place appointed by them) on the last Saturday in every month, and at such other times as may be agreed on from time to time by them; and a majority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 12. That at the same meeting, the said board of commissioners shall appoint a town treasurer, who shall hold his office for the same term, and subject to the same conditions, as the clerk above provided for holds his. He shall, before assuming his office, give bond, with approved sureties, in a penal sum to be fixed by said commissioners, payable to said commissioners and their successors in office, with a condition that he shall receive and faithfully keep all moneys which shall be paid to him on behalf of said commissioners, and disburse the same according to order given in obedience to the direction of said commissioners appearing on their minutes. That he shall keep a fair and correct account of all moneys so received and disbursed by him, in a book kept for that purpose. That he shall submit said account to said commissioners, whenever required to do so; and that he shall pay to his successor, on demand by him, all moneys in his hands belonging to said commissioners, and that he will faithfully perform all other duties imposed on him as town treasurer by law or the ordinances of said commissioners during his continuance in office. ceding every first day of December to be made by their clerk and posted in the court house in said town for twenty days next previous to the first day of January in each and every year; and for breach of their respective duties assigned them in this section, the said commissioners, clerk and town treasurer shall be liable to indictment.

Sec. 13. That at the first monthly meeting of said commissioners, after the appointment of said clerk and town treasurer, those officers shall respectively report to the commissioners the particulars of their settlement with their respective predecessors in office.

Sec. 14. That the said commissioners may also appoint a collector of town taxes, who shall hold his office for the residue of the term of commissioners appointing him, and who shall give bond, with approved security, payable to said commissioners and their successors in office, in a penal sum to be fixed by said commissioners, with a condition that he will diligently endeavor to collect all taxes imposed by said commissioners, making use for that purpose of all the power given him by law, and that he will faithfully account for and pay over to the town treasurer all sums of money collected or received by him for said commissioners, first deducting five per centum on his receipts, as his compensation; and that he will faithfully discharge all other duties imposed on him as tax collector by law or the ordinances for said commissioners: Provided, nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the said commissioners, shall they so determine, from requiring the sheriff of said county of Rowan to collect the town taxes; and the said sheriff, when so required by said commissioners, shall be subject to the same penalties and shall proceed under the same rules and regulations, and shall be invested with the same powers, as he is now subject to and invested by law for the collection of taxes due the State.

Sec. 15. That the said commissioners shall, at their first monthly meeting after their election, appoint a town constable, who shall hold his office for the residue of the official term of the commissioners who appoint him, subject to be removed by them at any time for misbehavior. He shall give a bond, in a penal sum to be fixed by said commissioners, payable to them and their successors in office, with a condition that he shall obey and diligently execute all lawful precepts to him directed by the Intendant of Police for said town, and that he will faithfully discharge all other duties which may be imposed upon him as town constable by law or the ordinances of said commissioners; and that he will diligently endeavour to carry into effect all such ordinances. It shall be the duty of said town constable, in general, to see that the ordinances of said commissioners are enforced, and report all breaches thereof to the Intendant of Police, to preserve the peace of said town by the suppression of disturbances, and the apprehension of offenders; and for that purpose, he shall have and he is hereby invested with all the powers now vested by law in sheriffs and constables: he shall also have, in the execution of process to him directed by the said Intendant of Police, the same powers which sheriffs and constables now have in the execution of like process directed to them: he shall receive a compensation to be fixed by said commissioners, and the same fees on all process executed or returned by him which are given to constables in like process when executed or returned by them.

The said lists shall be filed, and from the same the said town clerk shall, within twenty days from the said last day of March, in each and every year, make, in a book to be kept for that purpose, an alphabetical list of the persons and owners of property liable to taxation, in the same manner as tax lists are now made out by law for collection of State taxes. The said clerk shall also, within twenty days from the said last day of March in each and every year, make out to the best of his knowledge, in the same book, a list of taxable polls and of the owners of taxable property, within said town, who have failed to give in a list in the manner and within the time prescribed above; and he shall state in said list, if he can ascertain the sum at which the said property is assessed for taxation by the State, and if the said clerk cannot ascertain the sum at which said property is assessed for taxation by the State, he shall call on two freeholders of land in said town to value the said property, and they shall be sworn by the Intendant of Police, or some justice of the peace, to make a fair valuation; and the said clerk shall annex their valuation to said property. That all persons who shall fail to give in tax list in the manner and within the time above prescribed, shall pay a double tax for that year, the amount of which double tax shall be stated by said clerk in his said list.

Sec. 18. That on or before the first day of May, in each and every year, the said board of commissioners shall cause the said town clerk to make a fair copy of said list made by him as aforesaid; and they shall deliver the said copy to the tax collector, if one shall have been appointed, and if not, to the sheriff of said county of Rowan, together with a warrant, under their hands and seals, of those, or a majority of them, authorizing and directing the tax collector or said sheriff, to collect said taxes in said list mentioned, and to make return thereof and of said warrant on a certain day therein to be mentioned; and the said tax collector or sheriff is hereby vested with all the powers and rights, for the collection of said taxes, which sheriffs have for the collection of State taxes; and said tax list and warrant shall be of the nature of a judgment and execution for the taxes therein mentioned.

Sec. 19. The said board of commissioners shall have power to enact by-laws for the government of said patrol so hired or appointed, and to impose fines and penalties for the infringement of any such by-law so enacted, which fine and penalties, when incurred by any minor, shall be recovered from the parent, guardian, or master (if an apprentice) of such minor so offending.— That the patrol so hired or appointed by the said board of commissioners, whilst on duty, shall have all the powers which patrol now have by law, and for the suppression of riots and disturbances, and the preservation of the public peace in said town, all the powers now vested in constables as peace officers.

	By Cash paid Jacob Siler for travelling expenses to and from Raleigh to make returns	53 00
	Making the sum of	$460 50
	Which amount deducted from receipts, leaves a balance transferred to Public Treasurer on the 1st Feb. 1847, of	875,929 94

The demands on the Public Treasury for the next two years over and above the ordinary expenses arise principally from the State's liabilities on account of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road Company, and may be stated as follows:

In 1838, the State endorsed for the Company to the amount of $500,000. In 1840 for $300,000.

Of the last issue $13,500 were not used, and therefore that sum is subtracted from the State's liabilities. Four instalments of $30,000 each have been paid on the latter class of bonds so as to reduce it to $166,500, and therefore the total liabilities to $666,500.

As it is yet uncertain what disposition the Legislature will make of the Rail Roads, and what resources may be realized from the individual liabilities of stockholders and obligors, and at what time any aid to the Treasury may be expected from these sources, it is important to ascertain the liabilities to be met before the meeting of the next Legislature, and the resources at our command for that purpose.

Which deducted from necessary expenditures provided for before the meeting of the next Legislature,

$92,620 14

From the foregoing statement it appears that the demands on the Treasury for the next two years will exceed its resources by $92,620 14.

The Bank of Cape Fear by its charter is bound to loan the State on notice of three months any amount not exceeding $150,000.

By virtue of authority from the last Legislature, to borrow money to meet the liabilities of the State, the Public Treasurer borrowed in January 1847 of that Bank $40,000, which added to the $50,000, borrowed by my predecessor in January 1845, make $90,000, which the State is now indebted to her, and on which the interest has been paid semi-annually. It is for the Legislature to say whether steps should not be taken to pay off that debt.

If they determine to pay part or the whole, additional means must be provided.

To show the difference under the former and recent assessment, I have prepared a table marked E exhibiting the number of acres of land proven for taxation in 1846 and 1847, their valuation, amount of tax collected, the number of polls, and the excess and deficiency of each County in those respective years,

Respectfully submitted,

C. L. HINTON, Pub. Treas.
